NSW Volunteer Award

Trish Taylor (Riding for the Disabled NSW) was awarded the NSW Volunteer Award at the 2008 NSW Sports Federation Annual Sports Awards.

The Annual Awards Dinner, held on 26th February at the Waterview Convention Centre recognises and celebrates the outstanding achievements of athletes, administrators, organisations, coaches, officials, volunteers, etc within NSW.

Trish has held a range of positions including Vice President, Publicity Officer, Catering Officer and is currently the Assistant Secretary/Treasurer. She is also the Wet Weather Coordinator and contacts all volunteer drivers when sessions need to be cancelled due to bad weather. The volunteer from Cootamundra has raised over $8,000 for Riding For the Disabled NSW, and has done much to raise their profile generally and in her local area.
